

Influence of Rahu on the character

The story about demon Rahu. How does the power of Rahu affect a person? Character's qualities which are developed under the influence of Rahu. Spheres of activity under the influence of Rahu. Addiction to extreme from Rahu. Why is there a desire to destroy? Plants under the influence of Rahu. Animals under the influence of Rahu. How to weaken Rahu's influence? External demonstrations of Rahu's influence. Wealth or poverty – what is better? Are reprimands and critics appropriate in relationships with people? Psychic abilities. Mysticism in life. Does the influence of Rahu depend on age and gender?

00:00:01 Now we are going to consider two invisible planets which exist close to Earth. One of them is called Rahu, Ra-hu, the second one is called Ketu. Today we will talk about Rahu. Ra – the first letter is “r”, “a”, “h”, “u” – four letters. So, where is this planet from? According to Vedic history when the Universe was only created all living creatures, which had left this Universe in the moment of destruction, populated again this Universe in that places where they had to settle down.

The story about demon Rahu.

00:01:21 The difference is only that they became very powerful. They had more power. All living creatures can be divided in two groups: those who serve God are called demigods and mainly rule our Universe; and the second group is those who fight with laws of this Universe. These creatures are called demons; and as demons are inclined to fight in order to rule in the Universe, they can be very powerful; because they want to fight for power, such fights between these two groups can take place in the half of the Universe.

00:02:21 This is described in Vedas; such fights can happen sometimes. Sometimes they become friends, they conclude peace. Let's assume, there was such an interesting moment, when demigods got knowledge about both poles of the Universe has a great amount of water and it has milky nature, i.e. it is white. It is difficult to say what does it look like, but it is called a milky ocean. These two poles of the Universe are filled with water insides, and demigods obtained knowledge that if they took definite actions with this milk ocean they would get a specific liquid which would allow them to live till the death of the Universe. Therefore a living creature would live if it drank this liquid.

00:03:53 In short, they extracted everything, and later there was a great fight between them; all together they had extracted then fought...and there was Rahu – is such a big demon, their sizes are very difficult to understand for us. For example, the head of this demon can be slightly smaller than Earth, approximately they had such sizes. And when he stole some portion of this liquid and drank it, he was caught by others and they cut his head. As a result he was divided in two parts which remained alive because both parts had this immortality liquid.

00:05:20 As a result the first part, the head, became Rahu, and the second one is Ketu. These parts... as it lives in thin body and exists in this way; this is a rather powerful personality and affects greatly on Earth. Therefore this question is worth considering today, right? For example, in Vedic astrology it is known for sure, that all people who are addicted to alcohol are affected by Rahu greatly. Hard drinking means a contact with this planet.

How does the power of Rahu affect a person?

00:06:51 If you see a drunken person, you will feel that there is a definite power coming from him or her, it is...such a feeling of desecration, right? Something very unpleasant; the point that he or she drinks alcohol is one thing. But when a person drinks alcohol, he starts to contact with Rahu, and this unpleasant power which is felt from this person is the power of this planet. In the same way you can see the power of Moon, it is demonstrated as peace, blessing – women often have this power; in the same way you can see the power of Venice or Mercury in the person; logic thinking is given by Mercury or the power of mind, the power of Jupiter, or the power of joy, the power of the Sun. We can see all these in the same way as we can see the power of Rahu in a person.

00:07:54 This power can be called the power of antagonism, unscrupulousness, i.e. the power of contradictoriness and antagonism. You can see that all people who drink alcohol has this power of antagonism inside even if they fully agree with you, right? Do you agree with me that all of them are antagonized even if they agree with everything and act friendly; there is the power inside them which tells them that they shouldn't love everybody around? Influence of Rahu is how this power is called.

00:08:53 Therefore, Rahu is connected to the guna of ignorance, and when a person is influenced by the guna of ignorance he or she becomes closely connected to Rahu. In this case Rahu will have a weak position in the horoscope of this person. If Rahu is in strong position it means that he or she is protected from bad influence of this planet. If a person is protected from bad influence of the planet then he or she will have qualities which will prevent from bad qualities. For example, if a person has Rahu in weak position, he or she will have a great inclination to drinking alcohol, fighting with people, swearing and etc. These are all demonstrations of Rahu.

00:09:50 If a person has Rahu in good position, in this case everything will be vice versa, i.e. he or she will support opposite actions. He will fight with hard drinking, depravity, swearing etc. Do you understand? Good or bad position depends on your behavior in previous lives; you will get such position as your behavior was. Well, it is the same as with other planets. There are different indicators, maximal activity of the planet, indicators according to the power, to activity, to disposition in different zodiacs etc. We just didn't consider these questions; therefore, there is no need to talk about it now.

00:11:02 This is estimated, this planet is estimated in the same way as any other planet, i.e. there are houses, places where planets are situated; planets are estimated through houses, zodiacs and through the power of the planet. Always when weak Rahu is situated close to other planets and even this planet is friendly to Rahu, Rahu will influence on this planet in a bad way in any case. There is some amount of bad influence. If Rahu is strong, sometimes it influences in a bad way and sometimes in a good way. But, you can't be sure that even if it is strong it always will have good effect.

Character's qualities which are developed under the influence of Rahu.

00:12:03 So, now we are going to talk about qualities of character of a person who has strong demonstration of bad Rahu. Often such people look like... a person has a slightly ugly look, he or she can have a crazy gaze, messy clothes, dark skin. So. He or she can have skin diseases or mental disability. He or she often swears or just argues with people. He or she looks untidy and it is very difficult to come up to this person because it is just unpleasant. Such person causes unpleasant feelings. He or she is inclined to lechery; people under the influence of Rahu are inclined to amoral actions and shamelessness; all this is happened under the influence of Rahu.

00:13:45 Such person can be very talkative and say foolish things, or they can try to argue with another person, they are inclined to insult others. Also they are inclined to criticize religious systems, different religions; let's assume, a person or a holy person is under the influence of Rahu and he is very keen on criticizing other religious systems. Though when he talks about God he behaves very nobly, but when he starts to criticize other religious systems he can say different words. Rahu can influence every person, without exceptions.

00:14:42 Under the influence Rahu a person loses a feeling of affection for his family and home. He or she becomes independent, irresponsible and angry. If a person has Jupiter or Sun in good position, under the influence of Rahu he or she feels inner contradictoriness. Or if Rahu effects greatly, they suffer, a feeling of suffering, it is very difficult to live for them. Sometimes under the great influence of Rahu they feel such a melancholy, that is absence of shortcomings. Their shortcomings annoy them a lot, but they don't want to overcome their shortcomings. Often they become pessimistic and feel that they can't manage with all this.

00:16:04 Under the Rahu's influence people are inclined to abase themselves, try to win somebody's confidence, they also try to behave themselves ingratiatingly. A person under Rahu steps aside from religion, he or she is inclined to be irreligious. Due to influence of some...positive planets a person can be in different social groups; a person, say a scientist, who has weak Rahu looks like a scientist who is inclined to tell sharp opinion about other people, to severe criticism with flat jokes.

00:17:23 A scientist or may be a social leader with bad Rahu can behave in this way. He or she seems to look imposing, but when it comes to talk about people whom he or she doesn't like, they can talk in a bizarre manner, say foolish and bad things. For example, if a governor is under Rahu' influence, then he is inclined to lechery, to punish people in so called bad ways; he is inclined to have a dual life against people. A businessman under the influence of Rahu becomes a robber, i.e. he starts selling his goods at black market. And a worker under the influence of Rahu is inclined to drink, swear, and to have a spree. I say a very simple and understandable thing to you right now.

00:18:49 It means that if you see such demonstrations of people, you can see that this planet exists in our life. What personalities, kinds of personality can be considered to be under the influence of Rahu? All primitive tribes which exist all over the world, shout extremely loudly, tilt and eat each other. Everyone, who looks ragged and is not devotional, i.e. not priests and religious people, but all beggars. There are two types of beggars: there are just poor people, they are often under the influence of Ketu; and there are beggars, but very pretentious, behave very vulgarly, they are drunk; drunks often live at railway stations; such people always can be noticed.

00:20:05 Why do you notice such people? Why are they noticeable? Even if he is dressed up properly, you will notice him. Why? [replies from the audience] Because he reeks of Rahu, I'm sorry, even if he is sober. Do you understand that such person is always noticeable, because a mark of Rahu arises immediately? Therefore you should understand the following and very important thing; therefore as we are all approximately equal, but during Vedic periods degraded people also existed, they always existed, people... and there were also very devotional people, extremely...so, therefore during Vedic periods you could notice how greatly people were differed from each other. Do you understand?

00:21:01 Some of them looked absolutely awfully, and others obtained all positive qualities- beauty, dignity, and wealth, everything; and this could be noticed. Now everything is messed up, we are kind of...we have such an alignment of population, but, for example, India still has it... I saw that people are very different there depending on their culture. There are very cultured and educated people, and they look completely different; it is very noticeable, and other people treat them with respect. There are people who are inclined to bad lifestyle and they look completely different. They differ greatly from that people who are educated. Do you understand?

00:21:56 And, for example, when such a person comes to an university, many people dash aside from him, though it is wrong to do so. There are such types of people, who are already born in such families and look completely different. But after all, people from lower classes can become scientists, and Vedas say that if a person judges by a class and not by qualities of personality, he or she is in illusions. A person should firstly judge by qualities of personality; even very devotional people can come from the lowest classes.

00:22:48 For example, in India there lived one holy person, his name was Kharidas Tkhakur, he was one the greatest holy persons in our Univerese, in whole Universe. He had such an inner...he was very submissive, that nobody could reprove him, and he was telling everyone about God. And he was so popular that the ruler of the region decided to punish him and said: "If we cane you at 22 trade squares and you will stay alive, then you are a holy person indeed; if not, then you...But in general caning at 3 trade squares was already enough for one person.

00:24:02 He was caned at all 22 squares and he practically had no scratches on his body. Do you understand? He looked as fresh as he was before. And then those who had caned him became very upset, because they couldn't perform their obligation towards the ruler, and the ruler could punish them; these people begged: "Why are you still alive?" He just mortified his body by his own will. But not forever; they threw him into the river and he revived there. Kharidas Tkhakur. This is proved by documents; there are historical facts about this personality. He lived about five hundred years ago.

Spheres of activity under the influence of Rahu.

00:25:08 I said that as an example, that it is not always happens when low classes are under the influence of Rahu; sometimes holy people come from low classes, but, in any case we can see such people. Murders are under the influence of Rahu. People, who had accidents or are mutilated, are also under Rahu's effect. Different robbers, just dirty people, unreligious people, who deny religion, are also under Rahu's influence; when one says that there is God, someone replies that they need time to think about it and others laugh or replies that he or she is an idiot. Why is that?

00:26:04 If you tell somebody "There is a thousand of rubles on the road", why he or she will answer "May be". This information is also unusual "There is a thousand of rubles on the road", isn't it? But a person will answer "May be". But if you tell somebody that there is God, somebody doesn't agree with that. Why is it so? Because Rahu wakes up in them. There are two types of demonstration of this anger, not anger but the power, let's call it "power", a wish to commit violence; there are two types and you should know it clearly.

00:26:52 Divine persons look very decided when they commit violence and the power of justice radiates from them. They look like very just and decided people. And this power of justice petrifies others. People don't hate such a person, but they are afraid of him, because they know that they can't do anything against such a person. You understand, don't you? You have seen such examples; just recall them in your heads. And those people who are under the influence of Rahu, demonic persons, when they want to commit violence, there is no power of justice radiated from them, but there is a power of aversion, hatred and anger.

00:27:55 For example, in a movie where the Russians fight with the Germans and the Russians shoot this film. All actors who have the power of justice are Russian, and all actors who emit Rahu are Nazis. But when the Germans shoot a film, they do vice-versa. I watched a film about war, which was shot by the Germans; everyone there is so... the power of justice comes from the Germans, and the Russians are there ...it's awful to watch this. Do you understand how military heroes' prototypes are created? By this way. Everything is considered; directors consider this because they just feel it by nature, how all this should be shown. Actually these movies are images of fight between demigods and demons. So.

00:29:02 There is indeed such a fight in the Universe. But demigods are always for peace. Only sometimes they had to fight because there is nowhere to go, there are such conditions. Malicious gossip, for example; during Stalin's period and before Revolution there were such professions, when a person was just walking around and looking for something wrong. And then he reported and was paid for this. And this profession requires a special man because an average person can't do this. There should be special qualities; when Rahu is in special position a person will obtain such qualities. He wants to walk around, look around and gossip about everyone, to report, to snoop- this is such a profession. All these informers and spies.

00:30:15 When people work under ground, miners; a wish to work under ground, to construct something under ground and subway comes from Rahu, but in this case you can't say that this is a bad influence of Rahu. This is an influence of Rahu, but it is good, not bad, when a person does something constructive. The same situation is when good influence of Rahu gives a person such qualities and inclination to such brave professions, which have not just brave honesty, but it is just such qualities of character which can be called daring. Daring. They are daring. Or you may call it bravery.

Addiction to extreme from Rahu.

00:31:25 Well, let's assume, pilots. There are pilots, who are just...in general pilots are under the influence of Rahu, good Rahu, the strong one. They have such daring, willingness, their greatest wish is skies. They take off and feel that there is the best place for them, i.e. there is such a daring in the character. This happens due to strong Rahu. A person is also inclined to different adventures. They want to climb somewhere...stunt men – these are under the influence of strong Rahu. They want to fly in cars, to somersault etc. , to have such intensive feelings.

00:32:18 People with strong Rahu in horoscope also invent such amusements when cars are driven upside-down and they like taking part in these amusement, they want to experience such things. Also surgery is related to Rahu. A surgeon is inclined to cut something; surgery means that a person has good Rahu, all surgeons who...As Rahu can be in bad position, sometimes there is a need to cut in accordance with laws, say, executioners, people who is involved in tortures; they are shown in movies in a proper way, because they have very ugly faces and this is also influenced by Rahu.

00:33:19 [the question can't be heard]

00:33:26 Wood carving. I was told once that when two lower nations fight with each other this is called woodcarving as well. This is a joke. So. Wood carving, I don't know, I need...no, most likely it is connected to Mars; I think it is connected to Mars. Art, say cookery, when a person cuts fruits and vegetables, it is connected to Mars, because this wish is constructive; constructive changes are often connected to Mars.

00:34:08 [the question can't be heard]

Why is there a desire to destroy?

00:34:13 No. No. this is not Rahu. This activity is also related to. Everything that is related to destruction and, for example, well digging, a wish to dig a well is connected to Rahu, or splitting stones, cutting trees – everything to be broken. When a Rahu becomes strong, then a person can change his or her religion, can leave his wife or argue with his family. It is very often happens when Rahu becomes strong, such unprincipled argues in a family arise, which can't be explained logically. People just break up and that's it. They start hating each other, this is a direct influence of Rahu.

00:35:30 Emigration, when a person moves abroad, is also often under the influence of Rahu. All these gays are under the influence of Rahu. Rebellions and wars come from Rahu. When people argue in courts, it often happens under the influence of Rahu or Mars. Robbery, imprisonment, rebellions, executions, murders, spying and violence. When a person is double-faced, says one thing and does another, this is under the influence of Rahu. Political conspiracy is under the influence of Rahu. All kinds of lie. All nationalists, anti-Semites etc. we are Russian, we are Ukrainian – this is Rahu. We are good, you are bad in other words. This is all due to Rahu. Hunting is also under the influence of Rahu.

00:36:58 [the question can't be heard]

00:37:00 Depending of what kind of. For example, there is fishing connected with Venice which is in bad position; it is kind of esthetic – put out a feeler, take out a fish. It can be under the influence of Mars. And under the influence of Rahu it looks like an aborigine with a spear, there a fish, he kicks it, takes it out, it moves and he is happy with it – this is under Rahu. Hunters are also can do it under the influence of Mars. When he does under the influence of Rahu, he likes when an animal jerks when he wants to kill it. This is due to Rahu.

00:37:55 [the question can't be heard]

00:38:05 Good question. Really, everything that is in ignorance is connected to Rahu. If Mars is in ignorance, it means that it is under the influence of Rahu. Mars itself is not inclined to such violence. Do you understand? It is inclined to use violence, but without hatred. This is all comes from Rahu, from this planet. All these things, everything which is connected...hatred is showed in different things. For example, hatred during love relations between a man and a woman, different perversions are due to Rahu, though Venice participates here, not Mars. Do you understand? Rapes are due to Rahu, though here is Venice.

00:39:12 [the question can't be heard] Yes. Correct.

00:39:20 For example, Rahu in good position leads a person to valour, fame and name. He wants to do unusual actions, which during socialistic period were considered to be heroic deeds. So called 'papanovtsy' who...All this, this valour, space flights...When a person is sleepy, loves to sleep, sleeps a lot, it is also due to Rahu.

00:40:17 [the question can't be heard]

00:40:20 Yes, if a person loves to sleep a lot, this is a bad influence of Rahu. Which things are under the influence of Rahu? All poisons are under Rahu, old clothes, poisonous chemicals. Now TV, radio and mass media are under the great influence of Rahu. You can see, what is shown there now. This is quite defined, this is really so. Say, in order to invite people for my lecture I need to make great efforts, I can't just place advertisement on TV. If to place a TV advertisement, then such a person with a drunken voice will say: "there are lectures about healthy life style" and nobody will consider this information seriously.

Plants under the influence of Rahu.

00:41:43 It is very difficult to call people because mass media are affected. All cemeteries, graves and sometimes tunnels. For example, in the USA you can't use subway during evening and morning hours, it is very dangerous, you can be robbed or killed. Here are such moments. What plants are under the influence of Rahu? All plants which have unpleasant smell, such smell as, say, a hop has unpleasant smell. Does hop have a good smell, huh? Do you like it? Those who like it, have Rahu in a bad position. For example, tobacco plant is under the influence of Rahu, the plant. ...Yes-yes, you are right, wormwood. All plants with such a heavy smell. ... Coffee as well. You see, you know everything. And tea.

00:43:05 [the question can't be heard]

00:43:07 Wormwood can be pleasant. Different kinds of plants can be in different gunas. For example, there is a lemon wormwood or how is it called? Never mind, so, it smells very good. [can't be heard] Roots of sweetflags have a definite influence of Rahu. If there is an influence of Rahu, sometimes plants have a good medical effect, because all plants which are related to tumour treatment are under the influence of good Rahu. Say, coriander, nutmeg, black pepper – these are all under the influence of Rahu, especially black pepper and coriander. A polypore, for example, this mushroom polypore is under the influence of Rahu. So.

Animals under the influence of Rahu.

00:44:14 Animals also can be under the influence of Rahu. For example, venomous snakes, poisonous reptiles. For example, there is such an awful thing in India, it is of this size, has four legs, such a lizard covered by a shell. It has such a shell skin and a very thin, long tongue. ... No, no, it is not a giant lizard; it has such narrow elongated eyes, so, there are two fangs hanging out, and it is very skinny and runs very fast. So, such a thing has a bite which is hundred times more poisonous than a cobra has. And when it runs...it bites just because of hatred; and when it runs and sees a victim, even if you don't see it, you won't have time to make even one step; even it is 10 meters from you it runs like a bullet. It bites and a person dies almost immediately.

00:45:50 [the question can't be heard]

00:45:52 No, it bites just from hatred. I've forgotten it's name. There are no such things here, don't worry. This is also happening due to Rahu's influence. I said that because Rahu is demonstrated there greatly. I've seen this thing, this is an awful creature; just when you look at it, horror arises, just due to it's appearance.

00:46:23 [the question can't be heard]

00:46:28 I was in the car at that moment. And wasps? Wasps, bees, yes, there is Rahu's influence. All poisonous animals, insects, different spiders, tarantulas, mosquitoes – all these are under Rahu's influence, correct. ... Yes, all demonstrations of hatred are collected there. Such moments. I'm sorry; I don't have watches, what time is it now? In general I've told everything, but I think we can clarify a lot through questions. Do you have any other questions?

00:47:35 [the question can't be heard]

How to weaken Rahu's influence?

00:47:41 A very good question. The question is the following: if a person gets under the influence of Rahu, how we can help him? A very good question. If a person gets under the influence of Rahu, you can help him by weakening it's influence. And you can weaken it's influence by the following ways. The first way is to comply with day regimen, especially if a person starts waking up early. The earlier he wakes up, the earlier he goes to sleep, the less influence Rahu has. The second way is if a person eats cereals in proper time; because of this Rahu's influence weakens as Rahu influence a lot during evening hours.

00:48:35 If cereals are not digested till evening and as it is connected to...all cereals are connected with brain body, and the power of Rahu influence this body through undigested cereals. A person gets...if a person is good, devotional, he or she gets a feeling of pollution before sleeping if cereals are undigested inside. And he or she feels aversion inside. If a person is not devotional, he or she gets a bad mood and starts spoiling evening to everyone around. For example, if your husbands spoil your evenings before going to bed, then try to feed them with cereals in time. This is very important.

00:49:42 Yes, this is the next question, but I can answer it briefly. Cleaning your house with cow dung will be enough, to wash an apartment with fresh cow dung; there will be nothing, but a fresh smell. There are substances which neutralize the influence of Rahu, and cow dung does it. Ok, and about the action which can help a person – one of the actions is to burn natural incense in the apartment where the person lives, because incense...you can influence greatly on the consciousness of a person with the help of incense.

00:50:24 When a person breaths in an incense which is in benevolence, his or her nerve system starts working in benevolence. Smell influences directly on our nerve system and our body, our organs. Taste influences on prana's body. And tactile perceptibility is connected to mind body. And hearing goes directly to spiritual nature of a person, to his soul; i.e. hearing has the most effective influence on a person.

00:51:07 [the question can't be heard]

External demonstrations of Rahu's influence.

00:51:10 If a person doesn't like the smell of some incense, it means that it doesn't suit him or her. But there are lots of different incenses and one will suit for sure. If a person doesn't like any incense at all, but likes stinks, it means he or has a very strong Rahu.

00:51:33 [the question can't be heard]

00:51:45 This affects person's consciousness in a bad way. In a bad way. So. For example, how can you identify which neighbor is influenced by Rahu greatly? For example, there is such a method of identification. As we burn incenses very often, it goes up the air-conduit and neighbors comes to visit us; some of them ask not to burn incense because they are allergic to it, it is normal. It is not due to Rahu, it is just a high sensitivity. The second variant is when crazy neighbors arrive and say that they will through smoke bombs on us; this variant is of this kind. When you burn incense which one person likes, the influence of Rahu weakens.

00:52:45 Then, when you switch on divine music which a person can perceive; if he or she can't perceive it, then you need to find and switch on such music which he or she can perceive. If you do so, the influence of Rahu weakens greatly. This is a very strong method to weaken Rahu. In reality any planet can't influence a person unlimitedly. Any influence can be neutralized in this world. You should know how to do it. Therefore, if you have divine music playing all the time in your house, during morning, daytime, evening and night repeatedly, for example a tape recorder, then all negative effects from planets and neighbors weaken greatly. And this house obtains an atmosphere of happiness little by little.

00:53:52 Say, those who visit us have noticed that there is a difference between where we are now and other places; some people don't want to leave, they visit us and stay. Because this atmosphere is created thanks to divine music playing constantly. Constantly, repeatedly, during night and day. Bad effects intensify during night. I advise you to do so. Let it play quietly, no need to play it loudly, but the atmosphere in your house will be changed greatly, you will fight less. This is the most effective method to change atmosphere at home, the most effective. You can buy a tape recorder for this purpose, use it non-stop. I assure you that you will not regret. During all the time it is playing you will feel more happiness than before. What is next, what questions?

00:54:58 [the question can't be heard]

00:55:09 It is necessary, yes, it is like that, yes. As for western astrology, yes, it is considered to be analogs. Yes, this is an analog, Rahu and the ascending node.

00:55:30 [the question can't be heard]

00:55:45 Satanic means demonic influence. There are many different personalities, why to blame only Rahu? It has it's own life, we have ours. There can be other effects on person.

00:56:04 [the question can't be heard]

00:56:17 Yes, there are many contradictions between western and eastern astrology, because eastern astrology is fundamental; it means astrologists proves astrological laws in accordance with the Holy Writs. If a law doesn't contradict the Holy Writs, then it is approved; if it contradicts, it isn't approved. There is a fundamental knowledge, which is basic and can't be changed in any case. As for western astrologists, fundamental knowledge...there is some knowledge, but is it not fundamental, therefore western schools have many branches and eastern schools have almost the same position. If you consider western astrology, you will see there are many schools and they differ from each other a lot.

00:57:24 [the question can't be heard]

Wealth or poverty – what is better?

00:57:34 No, in this life, if a person...I mean, if a person had good Rahu in previous life but was living in a bad way, then in current life he will have Rahu in a bad position. But the planet influences all the time and in the same way during the life. Another kind of influence will be in next life. Therefore I'm telling you, that if you want to be billionaires you don't need to sweat; I have already told you that there is no need in sweating in this life. It is already seen that you won't be billionaires, because you have to have a definite birth, which is completely different. Do you understand?

00:58:15 Therefore, a person becomes involved in charity in benevolence; you should study how to do it; next life he or she will be much richer and if he will be engaged in charity, then he will be even richer. Do you understand? And later he can even be a Rockefeller. These extremely rich people were involved in charity a lot during their previous lives, for sure. But as wealth is often a challenge for a person rather than a prize, these people can't often manage with this challenge because they strive for more and more wealth. It is considered, that simplicity is a prize for a person; simplicity and humility – these are prizes.

00:59:08 Wealth and poverty – are challenges. But poverty is considered to be better than wealth. A rich person is in danger. It is easy to degrade for him or her, because everything is allowed. A poor person is restricted by definite frames; therefore it is difficult to degrade; though poor people can become very greedy and grasping. Poverty and wealth are negative factors for spiritual growth of a person. A person should have an average income in order to have free time for spiritual practice. But, when a person becomes spiritually developed, his attitude to poverty and wealth becomes the same; it is all the same for him, no difference.

01:00:00 [the question can't be heard]

Are reprimands and critics appropriate in relationships with people?

01:00:04 No, at all, there is no sense to rebuke anybody at all. There is no sense in this; this is a wrong way to live. A reprimand can be told by a ruler or an administrative person and only because everyone knows that he should rebuke. In general a person should not rebuke, but he or she may do it in case of emergency, say, someone acts immorally; but in general don't rebuke, just give advice to your friends. If you have good relations with a person and he or she wants to listen to you, you can tell something and he or she will listen to you. In this case your reprimand will be successful.

01:00:55 In respect of parents and children and their relations, I have already told you that if parents enjoy authority with their children, children trust parents, then parents often don't need to argue or rebuke, they just say by the way that it is better to do so and so. It is enough; a person remembers it for the whole life and will act in this way. Therefore upbringing means to deserve trust in order a person feels authority. Just rebuking, this style doesn't lead to anything good. This is not a high-cultured style; let's say it in this way. But it is very popular nowadays, we know it, everyone likes rebuking.

01:01:50 A person should develop tolerance in him or herself, he or she should be patient when somebody acts in a wrong way; a person should develop tolerance and sympathy. And a person should show how to act correctly by his own example. If he is asked, he should tell submissively how to act right, how to comply, and he should always refer to any Holy Writ. In accordance with this knowledge it is better to act so and so. If a person... this is in case when a person does something and it causes inconvenience or pain, but it is not dangerous. For example, a person steps to someone's foot, just step away. If a person pushes others in a queue, just step away. If a person swears badly, you should just say, that you fully agree with this.

01:02:50 Because this is a good way, a good opportunity to learn being submissive. For example, I had such an opportunity the next day after the New Year holiday. We went to visit our friends, we had to wait for a long time to open the door; there was a man close to the house, he looked at me and started calling me with different words. I agreed with him immediately, I had different variants of agreement, I had a little training, recalled lectures; that was a great opportunity. Therefore, in order to tell a reprimand you should understand that it is instigation; when someone does something like that, he or she instigates us to a bad action, but it is not always necessary. Sometimes it is better to stand it, because you can't change a person by your reprimand; if he or she doesn't want to listen, you will cause aggression in this person, that's it. This is an absolutely pointless thing. It doesn't cause any positive results, it only intensifies a conflict and that's all.

01:04:10 [the question can't be heard]

01:04:15 Yes, when you are criticized, there is no point in making excuse, because criticism means anger. If someone says something with a kind heart, you can discuss it with this person, and you will be explained whether you act right or wrong, from a kind heart. You can talk to this person if it is from a kind heart. But, there is no point in excusing yourself when somebody criticizes you, because nobody will listen to you, because a person is driven by hatred. When a person is driven by a false ego, there is no point in talking to him or her. It is beneath one's dignity to make excuse when a person is driven by hatred.

01:05:01 If you don't make excuse, if we don't make excuse when a person is driven by hatred; when he criticizes and hears that you don't make excuse, he changes his point of view. There is such an interesting phenomenon; he or she changes his or her point of view. But if you only start making excuse then he or she will be sure that he or she said everything right. Therefore, it is better to agree. Say: yes, this is true, I do have such shortcomings.

01:05:42 [the question can't be heard]

01:05:48 Sometimes in one zodiac, sometimes in counteraction, everything depends on...sometimes it gives only aspects, i.e. definite powers of influence, in different ways. But in general it is all the same. You get bad influence as a result.

01:06:10 [the question can't be heard]

01:06:13 It is the best. ...No, no. Rahu influences all planet in the same strong way, but some planets can be friendly to Rahu and other planets not. But it is kind of for symbolically; if Rahu is bad then it influences other planets in a bad way, all planets.

01:06:40 [the question can't be heard]

01:06:43 In which zodiacs? I don't think that in any zodiac it is worse; everything depends on its power; if it is weak it can be very bad in any zodiac. [can't be heard]. It has...there is a definite estimated motion path. [can't be heard]. Well, depending on whom it is invisible for. There are people who can see it. Do you understand? For example, American intelligence service carried out such experiments some time ago. They were studying one person who had an ability to see through large distances, his mind was very clear. And they studied this phenomenon; they placed him in a closed room under such a lead hood, where no electromagnetic waves could appear, and they named a forbidden Russian object, a military object.

01:08:18 And he described all the territory of this object in details; later they had a picture of this place from a satellite and it fully agreed with the description. They also asked him to tell about Jupiter. He concentrated and told them, but they said "No, no, it's not true, Jupiter is different." And later when they researched it more thoroughly and took pictures, they found out that he was right. In this way. This person had never been to Jupiter, but he concentrated and in few minutes gave full information about the atmosphere there and so on. Therefore it is possible to see Rahu as well without any problems.

01:09:10 If now in the century of degradation there are such people, what can we say about time five thousand years ago, when many people had such abilities given by nature. They could easily concentrate. Therefore, in Vedic times there was no such an idea as lies. Do you understand that it was very difficult to lie? A person could easily understand what was wrong with another one. And it was often met, Vedas often describe it. When a person saw any event, when he or she was told that any event had happened, he or she just concentrated and looked into the past and saw how it had happened in details, and answered "yes, I understand it". In this way.

01:10:02 We can't do it anymore. And it's a pity. May be not. All we have is given to us and it is the best for us. It is better to live in this way. If now we start seeing our previous lives and find out some animal form which we got between times, we will have...our mood will be spoiled because we have a very good opinion about ourselves.

01:10:32 [the question can't be heard]

Psychic abilities.

01:10:35 No, no, psychic abilities mean very realistic things. It means that a person is under great stress and can even lose his mind. These are very serious things, when a person meets with the information about his previous lives, very serious, he can lose his mind. If we are not given something by nature, we should not strive for that. There are such systems now which can artificially raise abilities to see previous lives. I want to tell you that these systems are useless to raise abilities to see previous lives. Because a person is put in a state of special sensitivity and he or she just models all these processes, which are often taken from the space and which have nothing in common with their previous lives.

01:11:36 Because there is such a law – in order to be able to see your previous lives you should accumulate a definite amount of piety. Do you understand? Say, in order to model how a person was in mother's womb you don't have to have a great amount of piety. If to hypnotize any person, he or she is able to model his or her life in mother's womb with the help of mind, because he or she has already been there in this life. You can recall everything happened in this life with the help of hypnosis. But in order to recall events in previous lives one should obtain the power of piety.

01:12:19 This means that the power of mind purity can go outside the boundaries of this life. And then a person can recall his or her previous lives by own wish without any hypnosis, if he or she is purifying his or her consciousness. In this case it means that everything he or she will recall can be processed by their karma and activity. A person who is unable to process it, he or she can't...I understand how it happens; I will explain it to you in details.

01:12:58 You can compare it with a heavy weight. Say, you are holding a heavy weight and you feel very clearly that you can't...you can hold some weight in your hands, but heavier - not; so in the same way there is a definite power of information density. This is considered as a heavy weight for your mind. Do you understand? A very clear mind lets information through more easily than a polluted mind, because there is a pressure of gunas of material nature.

01:13:40 The lowest gunas have very dense and rough energies. These energies come down on person's mind and body and intelligence by such a dense and heavy layer; and a person under the influence of the lowest gunas always feels heaviness, sleepiness or aggression. It is difficult to live for him; he or she gets a condition of the most difficult layers of life. Do you understand? And if a person in this condition tries to recall his or her previous lives, then they will find only these lowest layers. Therefore he or she gets more heaviness and his mind and ability to see and work will be weakening. Do you understand?

01:14:31 Therefore, if a person reaches a definite purity of mind, he or she can see previous lives because they have an ability to get another lighter information layers. If a person is in benevolence guna, he or she can see previous lives and he or she sees good moments first of all, because they naturally receive the whole spectrum of benevolence. First of all they see happy moments.

01:15:04 But he or she can go deeper into more difficult moments by wish, but he or she can't get this information in great amount. He takes one detail, process it in his head, then he can look for something else and process it as well. Do you understand? But he or she can't take the whole layer of this heavy information about previous lives because in this case his or her mind will be covered in ignorance.

01:15:30 [the question can't be heard] Firstly we look like kind of a fish, later...he is kind of growing in mother's womb or what? Or just in life? [the question can't be heard]

Mysticism in life.

01:16:25 Well, may be you know, but somebody doesn't know. Do you understand? It is connected to the purity of mind. But I can tell you for sure that there is an inclination to mysticism in Russia in general. It is connected to it's location...to this area. Do you understand? But unscientific mysticism, i.e. mysticism in ignorance guna. I will explain now what the difference is between mysticism in benevolence and in ignorance. Let's assume that a person in benevolence recalls something from his previous life and in order not to get under the influence of bad powers... i.e. everything connected to the past and future, serious things, any energy comes from different sources; benevolence sources, passion sources and ignorance sources. .. When it comes from the ignorance sources, it absorbs a person.

01:17:29 A person is absorbed in mysticism and becomes crazy or is absorbed in a very deep ignorance. Do you understand? He becomes like a sleepwalker. And he lives in this world all the time. He can even get schizophrenia. So. If a person sees past and future and has a clear mind, then this information doesn't absorb him because a person is in benevolence and he is not connected to such information. He just keeps it in mind that something had happened and that's it; it is not very interesting for him. Well, it happened and so what? The same as I do something in current life, say fishing; so what? There is no problem with it. Do you understand?

01:18:15 A person knows that it happened and it is not very interesting for him. He looks into the previous lives in the same way – something happened and that's it. If information is coming from the lowest gunas, a person is absorbed in it and he has unhealthy interest, becomes absorbed in all this and closely connected with his mind. This is mysticism from guna of ignorance, because it absorbs a person. If a person is just connected to this information but doesn't dig in details, it means he is in passion guna. But if he starts imagining something about this information, then he is in ignorance guna already.

01:18:56 In order to cut such a bad influence of mysticism people in benevolence start studying astrology or other aspects of sciences which will prove or reject their statements. For example, you can calculate some events in previous lives of a person with the help of Vedic astrology. So. Not everyone can do it, but it is possible however. Therefore, a person studies how to do it and sees what is really supposed to happen according to his or her horoscope; whether he or she had a violent death or something like that and then concludes something.

01:19:45 A person in benevolence never concludes about his or her prediction if it is not proved scientifically. A person in passion can conclude but however he or she is aware that it can be wrong. A person in ignorance is absolutely sure that everything came into his or her head is true. Do you understand? And I often meet such people, for example, in Alma-Ata one man with a very deep gaze came to me and said: “We are so called, we control whole Europe and Asia and we are greeting you in Alma-Ata and wish you success in your pious activity.” I replied: “Give me your blessing to be successful in my lectures.” He said: “I bless you, I give you my blessing”.

01:21:15 Usually, a holy person never introduces himself, never imposes himself, he behaves very simple and submissively. If a person behaves in other way it means he or she is under the guna of ignorance a lot. Do you understand? You can judge by behaviour, it is connected. Therefore you should be very serious about the information from the previous lives. Also you should be very serious with people who call themselves psychics, wizards and so on. These people are dangerous for society because they aspire to obtain preternatural strength and to control our society.

01:22:14 It means they can affect someone's destiny greatly. If they really can see something concerning your life and they see it in guna of ignorance, they can give you a very pessimistic mood. Or vice versa, if they want to take more money from you, they will give you a very optimistic mood. In other words, they will spoil a clear mood of a person by their predictions, and it's not good. Therefore you should be very careful with such people. Do you have any other questions to me?

01:22:58 [the question can't be heard]

01:23:02 This is a very good question. These clinics of psychic diseases are absolutely under Rahu's control; doctors and patients are under the influence of Rahu. But doctors work off their bad karma of Rahu's influence, i.e. they have strong Rahu; but patients are under very bad influence of Rahu. All people with schizophrenia and psychopathy... schizophrenia can be not only due to Rahu, there is also Jupiter in bad position; but psychopaths are people with a completely reformed psychics and this is a 100% influence of Rahu. All immoral people, with psychic diseases are under a very strong influence of Rahu. Drug addicts are under Rahu, drug addicts.

01:24:04 [the question can't be heard]

Does the influence of Rahu depend on age and gender?

01:24:12 No, no, nothing of this kind. Rahu just influences differently on different ages. As young men and women are influenced by Venice a lot, in this case Rahu will be connected to Venice always. And it means drug addiction, enjoyment. Do you understand? In elder ages, say, if a person is involved in self-awareness and is influenced by Rahu, he or she starts criticizing everyone, becomes involved in politics and criticism. Everything depends on age and gender of a person. Women demonstrate influence of Rahu in one way, men – in another. For example, men are inclined to cruelty and violence; women are inclined to depression, alienation, gossips, in a different way. The same Rahu influence both genders differently. Children are naughty under the influence of Rahu.

01:25:26 [the question can't be heard]

01:25:31 Very often. Look, faces under the influence of Rahu are so... you will see, there is such a thing. Even army, say, the army of not very devotional country; people in this army are also often under the influence of Rahu. But not always, sometimes.

01:25:57 [the question can't be heard]

01:25:59 Yes, yes, yes, yes. Sometimes police, when...but this is connection of Rahu with Mars; all these military actions.

01:26:10 [the question can't be heard]

01:26:22 If a person has knowledge, it is always easier. For example, if a person knows that Rahu becomes stronger, he or she will be more careful no matter if Rahu is in good or bad position. A person should know his or her horoscope and what periods are going to start. A person should know when and how planets will influence him or her. This knowledge won't be unnecessary. But if a person is pessimistic, any knowledge can be used harmfully. If a person is optimistic and inclined to self-perfection, he can try to get any knowledge.

01:27:04 But if a person is pessimistic, knowledge can bring harm to him. Therefore, when people just come to me for diagnostics, it is always dangerous in some way because people can't always manage with information they get. Sometimes they become very angry with me for what I'm telling them. And they don't understand sometimes what can or can't be said. This is a very high level. Because you ask me for diagnostics I have to do it. What time is it now? Everybody sit straight.
